Colossians 1:3-8

A Prayer Of Gratitude For
The Fruit Of The Gospel

Colossians 1:3-8

1) The Power Of The Gospel
Is Seen In Its Fruit (v5b-6)

Did he not make them one, with a portion of the Spirit in their union? And what was the one God seeking? Godly offspring.

Malachi 2:15a

2) The Fruit Of The Gospel Is
Faith, Love, and Hope (v3-5a)

Galatians 5:16-26

Love is patient and kind; love does not envy or boast; it is not arrogant or rude. It does not insist on its own way; it is not irritable or resentful; it does not rejoice at wrongdoing, but rejoices with the truth. Love bears all things, believes all things, hopes all things, endures all things. Love never ends. As for prophecies, they will pass away; as for tongues, they will cease; as for knowledge, it will pass away. For we know in part and we prophesy in part, but when the perfect comes, the partial will pass away. When I was a child, I spoke like a child, I thought like a child, I reasoned like a child. When I became a man, I gave up childish ways. For now we see in a mirror dimly, but then face to face. Now I know in part; then I shall know fully, even as I have been fully known. So now faith, hope, and love abide, these three; but the greatest of these is love.

1 Corinthians 13:4-13

3) This Fruit Is Evidence That The Gospel
Is At Work In The Local Church (v7-8)
